Heaven In The Real World

The body, however, is not meant for sexual immorality but for the Lord, and the Lord for the body.
(1 Corinthians 6:13)

But among you there must not be even a hint of sexual immorality. (Ephesians 5:3)

It is God's will that you should be sanctified: that you should avoid sexual immorality. (1 Thessalonians 4:3)

Seeing The Beautiful, The Preciousness, And The Creator

- Sex/Sexuality Is No _____ From God . . .

It Is Now _____ To Its _____!

- Matthew 19:3-6
- Matthew 5:27-28
- 1 Corinthians 7:2-4

We believe every person is created in the image of God, wonderfully and immutably, as male or female. These two distinct and complementary sexes together reflect the image and nature of God. Sexual intimacy is designed only for a man and a woman who are committed to one another in the covenant of marriage. All sexual relationships outside of this marriage relationship are both contrary to God's will and ultimately destructive for both the individuals and human society. This relationship of marriage is also a unique reflection of Christ's relationship with His church.
(Rocky Peak Statement of Beliefs)

We've already seen that sex as a commodity was a pillar of the Roman Empire. Christian Sexual Ethics developed as a rebuke of that world. Christians claimed that Christ gave us the kind of freedom that allows us to choose sexual holiness. ... In Rome, if you were sexually shameful, there was no going back. In God's kingdom, there is forgiveness and healing and grace and freedom.

Encountering Your Good, Good Father

Pray Vehemently:

- Show Me Who _____.

Any good parent would tell their children, "Hey—if you do this, it won't really work out good for you, but if you do this, you'll prosper, you'll be great." And I think some of the difficulty is us projecting onto God things that are just not Him. And so I think if we saw Him more like a Father ... then we would understand that He's being very kind to us to warn us and guide us into ways that would honor Him and honor our bodies.
